SUBJECT INDEX

ADIPOSE TISSUE
Fatty acid composition of adipose tissue in Ethiopian immigrants: a prospective study during their first year in Israel, 255

ADVERSE DRUG REACTION
Fever and chills caused by nitrofurantoin taken after sexual intercourse, 17

AIDS/HIV
The prevalence and interaction of human immunodeficiency virus and hepatitis B virus infections in Israeli hemophiliacs, 557
Hemophilia and the human immunodeficiency virus [Editorial], 572
Tuberculosis and AIDS, 576

ANTIBIOTHERAPY
Reduction of hospital cost and administration of prophylactic antibiotherapy in gynecological surgery, 134

ANTICHOLINERGIC AGENTS
Comparison of a B2 adrenergic agonist and an anticholinergic agent given by sequential inhalation in patients with severe chronic obstructive pulmonary disease, 307

ANXIETY AND SOMATIZATION
Psychopathology and management of hospitalized suicidalEthiopian adolescents in Israel, 293
See Persian Gulf War

ARACHIDONIC ACID
Arachidonic acid metabolism in the pathophysiology and prevention of preeclampsia — a review [Review Article], 578

ARTHRITIS
Psoriatric arthritis — review of current concepts [Review Article], 228

B CELLS
B lymphocyte changes induced by peri-operative blood transfusions and surgery in patients with colorectal cancer, 75

BIBLIOMETRICS
Bibliometric study of cardiology in Israel in 1978, 1983 and 1988 [Special Article], 234

BILE
Pigment gallstones and bacteria [Editorial], 332
Interrelationship between chemical composition of gallbladder stones and bacterial findings in the corresponding bile fluids, 337

BLOOD PRESSURE MONITORS
Validation study of two automated ambulatory blood pressure monitors — the Spacelabs and Oxford apparatuses, 95

CALCIUM CHANNEL BLOCKERS
Influence of calcium channel blockers on polymorphonuclear and monocyte bactericidal and fungicidal activity, 301

CANCER
B lymphocyte changes induced by peri-operative blood transfusions and surgery in patients with colorectal cancer, 75

CAPTOPRIL
Limitations of the captopril test in the diagnosis of renovascular hypertension, 67
Captopril test — is it a sensitive tool for screening renovascular hypertension? [Editorial], 87

CARIES
Increased caries prevalence in adolescents who immigrated from Ethiopia to Israel, 297

CATECHOLAMINES
Catecholamine determination in sequential urine voiding: a method for detecting pheochromocytoma in patients without elevated urinary catecholamines, 12

CEREBROVASCULAR ACCIDENTS
Mitral valve prolapse in young Israelis with thromboembolic brain disease, 5
Mitral valve prolapse and thromboembolic brain disease [Editorial], 44

CHEMICAL WARFARE (See Persian Gulf War)

CHLAMYDIA
Success rates in in vitro fertilization treatment and its correlation with high titer antibodies for Chlamydia trachomatis, 546

CHRONIC OBSTRUCTIVE PULMONARY DISEASE

CLOXACILLIN
Cloxacillin-induced interstitial nephritis, 159

COAGULATION
Role of tumor necrosis factor in the pathogenesis of intravascular coagulopathy of sepsis: potential new therapeutic implications [Review Article], 52
Free radical-induced fibrinogen coagulation: modulation of neofibe formation by concentration, pH and temperature, 61
The prevalence and interaction of human immunodeficiency virus and hepatitis B virus infections in Israeli hemophiliacs, 557
Hemophilia and the human immunodeficiency virus [Editorial], 572

CONGENITAL DISLOCATION OF THE HIP
Pavlik harness pathology, 325

CRYPTOSPORIDIUM
Cryptosporidium in Bedouin and Jewish infants and children in southern Israel, 330

CYSTIC FIBROSIS
Psychological development as related to puberty, body height and severity of illness in adolescents with cystic fibrosis, 186

DIABETES
Aldolase, glucose-6-phosphate dehydrogenase, superoxide dismutase and aldose reductase activity in the lenses of diabetic rats, 102
Prevalence of overt diabetic nephropathy in patients with noninsulin-dependent diabetes mellitus, 124
Diabetic nephropathy [Editorial], 213
Prevalence of diabetes mellitus in Ethiopian immigrants, 252
Myelopathy as a complication of diabetes mellitus, 316
Diabetic myelopathy [Editorial], 331

DIABETES IN PREGNANCY (Special Issue)
Influence of dietary changes on the development of the fetal pancreas - consequences later in life, 423
The legacy of Norbert Freinkel: maternal metabolism and its impact on the offspring, from embryo to adult, 425
Glucose metabolism during pregnancy: normal physiology and implications for diabetes mellitus, 432
Different responses to maternal diabetes during the first and second half of gestation in the streptozotocin-treated rat, 442
Placental glycogen metabolism in diabetic pregnancy, 449
Dynamic parameters of glycine metabolism in diabetic human pregnancy measured by [^{15}N]glycine and gas chromatography mass spectrometry, 462
Biochemical basis of the diabetic embryopathy, 469
Diabetes in pregnancy: effects on post-implantation embryos, 478
Embryotoxic effects of diabetes on pre-implantation embryos, 487
The human placenta in diabetes mellitus, 493
Prevalence of congenital anomalies and neonatal complications in the offspring of diabetic mothers in Israel, 498
Screening and diagnosis of gestational diabetes, 503
New strategies for the treatment of gestational diabetes, 510
Abnormal growth patterns in diabetes in pregnancy: a longitudinal study, 516
The infant of the diabetic mother: pregnancy as a "tissue culture experience", 524
The fetus of the diabetic mother: growth, malformations and methods of surveillance by ultrasonography - the Beilinson Medical Center experience, 532

DIARRHEA
Cryptosporidium in Bedouin and Jewish infants and children in southern Israel, 380

DIET
Rheumatic fever and diet, 161

DIFFUSE INTRAVASCULAR COAGULATION
Role of tumor necrosis factor in the pathogenesis of intravascular coagulopathy of sepsis: potential new therapeutic implications [Review Article], 52

DOPAMINERGIC DRUGS
Long-term pergolide treatment of hyperprolactinemic patients previously unsuccessfully treated with dopaminergic drugs, 375

ENZYMES
Fructose-1,6-diphosphatase deficiency in Israel, 1
Aldolase, glucose-6-phosphate dehydrogenase, superoxide dismutase and aldose reductase activity in the lenses of diabetic rats, 102
Krabbe disease in Israel, 196

ESCHERICHIA COLI
Mechanistic aspects of 1-methyl-4-phenyl pyridinium iodide toxicity in Escherichia coli: the role of oxygen and hydrogen peroxide, 207

ETHIOPIAN IMMIGRANTS
Special Issue — Medical and Epidemiological Aspects of the Ethiopian Immigration to Israel Ethiopian Jews: an historical sketch, 242
The Ethiopian community in Israel - demographic data, 244
Genetic affinities of Ethiopian Jews, 245
Prevalence of diabetes mellitus in Ethiopian immigrants, 252
Fatty acid composition of adipose tissue in Ethiopian immigrants: a prospective study during their first year in Israel, 255
Trends in weight and blood pressure in Ethiopian immigrants during their first few years in Israel: epidemiological observations and implications for the future, 260
Blood pressure in Ethiopian immigrants: relationship to age and anthropometric factors, and changes during their first year in Israel, 264
Hepatitis B virus infection in Ethiopian immigrants to Israel, 268
Prevention strategy of hepatitis B virus infection among the Ethiopian community in Israel, 273
Mass treatment of intestinal parasites among Ethiopian immigrants, 278
Malaria in Israel: the Ethiopian connection, 284
Tuberculosis in Ethiopian immigrants, 288
Psychopathology and management of hospitalized suicidal Ethiopian adolescents in Israel, 293
Increased caries prevalence in adolescents who immigranted from Ethiopia to Israel, 297
Tuberculosis and AIDS, 576

EXPERIMENTAL AUTOIMMUNE ENCEPHALOMYELITIS
Effect of experimental autoimmune encephalomyelitis on pregnancy: studies in rabbits and rats, 181
Development of experimental allergic encephalomyeli-

tis during steroid administration. Outcome of neurological immune mediated disorders under immunosuppressive therapy, 365
Glucocorticoids and experimental allergic encephalomyelitis — nonspecific versus specific immunomodulation of autoimmunity [Editorial], 400

FAMILY MEDICINE
Adults who accompany their children to the family physician in Israel: parents or patients?, 224

FATTY ACIDS
Fatty acid composition of adipose tissue in Ethiopian immigrants: a prospective study during their first year in Israel, 255

FEVER AND CHILLS
Fever and chills caused by nitrofurantoin taken after sexual intercourse, 17

FIBRINOGEN
Free radical-induced fibrinogen coagulation: modulation of neofibe formation by concentration, pH and temperature, 61

FLUORINATED ANESTHETIC AGENTS
Hepatitis following use of two different fluorinated anesthetic agents, 156

FREE RADICALS
Free radical-induced fibrinogen coagulation: modulation of neofibe formation by concentration, pH and temperature, 61
Mechanistic aspects of 1-methyl-4-phenyl pyridinium iodide toxicity in Escherichia coli: the role of oxygen and hydrogen peroxide, 207

GALLSTONES
Pigment gallstones and bacteria [Editorial], 332
Interrelationship between chemical composition of gallbladder stones and bacterial findings in the corresponding bile fluids, 337

GASTRITIS
Helicobacter pylori infection — its prevalence and diagnosis in Israel, 335

GENETIC POLYMORPHISMS
Genetic affinities of Ethiopian Jews, 245

GLUCOSTEROIDS
Development of experimental allergic encephalomyelitis during steroid administration. Outcome of neurological immune mediated disorders under immunosuppressive therapy, 365
Glucocorticoids and experimental allergic encephalomyelitis — nonspecific versus specific immunomodulation of autoimmunity [Editorial], 400

GONORRHEA
An outbreak of penicillin-resistant Neisseria gonorrhoea in southern Israel, 311

GRAVES' DISEASE
Discordant hypothyroxinemia and hypertriiodothyroninemia in treated patients with Graves' disease and toxic multinodular goiter, 361

GROWTH HORMONE
Usefulness of the growth hormone-releasing hormone test regardless of which fragment is used (GHRH 1-44, 1-40 or 1-29) [Review Article], 343

HEALTH EXPENDITURE
Reduction of hospital cost and administration of prophylactic antibiotherapy in gynecological surgery, 134
Israel's expenditure on health services: a reply [Letter], 346
Israel's expenditure on health services: further comments [Letter], 347
Alternative methods of hospital remuneration in Israel, 583

HEART DISEASE
Functional mitral regurgitation: physiological and clinical significance in congestive cardiomyopathy [Review Article], 105
Bibliometric study of cardiology in Israel in 1978, 1983 and 1988 [Special Article], 234
Incidence of and reasons for excluding patients with acute myocardial infarction from thrombolytic therapy, 121
Streptokinase immunogenicity in thrombolytic therapy for acute myocardial infarction, 541

HELICOBACTER PYLORI
Helicobacter pylori infection — its prevalence and diagnosis in Israel, 335

HEMOSUCCUS PANCREATITIS
Hemosuccus pancreatitis and intraperitoneal bleeding secondary to spontaneous rupture of the splenic artery, 150

HEPATITIS
Hepatitis following use of two different fluorinated anesthetic agents, 156
Chronic active hepatitis following splenectomy for autoimmune thrombocytopenia, 199
Hepatitis B virus infection in Ethiopian immigrants to Israel, 268
Prevention strategy of hepatitis B virus infection among the Ethiopian community in Israel, 273
The prevalence and interaction of human immunodeficiency virus and hepatitis B virus infections in Israeli hemophiliacs, 557

HEMOPHILIA
The prevalence and interaction of human immunodeficiency virus and hepatitis B virus infections in Israeli hemophiliacs, 557
Hemophilia and the human immunodeficiency virus [Editorial], 572

HYPERCHOLESTEROLEMIA
Decreased very low density lipoprotein fluidity in familial hypercholesterolemia, 70

HYPERPROLACTINEMIA
Long-term pergolide treatment of hyperprolactinemic patients previously unsuccessfully treated with dopaminergic drugs, 375

HYPERTENSION
Limitations of the captopril test in the diagnosis of renovascular hypertension, 67
Captopril test — is it a sensitive tool for screening renovascular hypertension? [Editorial], 87
Validation study of two automated ambulatory blood pressure monitors — the Spacelabs and Oxford apparatuses, 95
Trends in weight and blood pressure in Ethiopian immigrants during their first few years in Israel: epidemiological observations and implications for the future, 260
Blood pressure in Ethiopian immigrants: relationship to age and anthropometric factors, and changes during their first year in Israel, 264
Arachidonic acid metabolism in the pathophysiology and prevention of preeclampsia — a review [Review Article], 578

HYPOGLYCEMIA
Fructose-1,6-diphosphatase deficiency in Israel, 1

IMMUNIZATION
Measles containment in Israel, 19
Prevention of measles in Israel: short- and long-term intervention strategies, 22
Importance of dog control in preventing human post-exposure rabies prophylaxis in southern Israel, 43
Epidemiology of measles in the vaccination era: implications for an effective prevention of the disease [Editorial], 48
Outbreak of pertussis in a closed population with a high vaccination rate, 137

IMMUNOLOGY
